Monday 16th October

Hate Crime Awareness and Reporting Workshop

St. Joseph's Pastoral Centre, Hendon 11am-1pm

St Joseph's Grove, The Burroughs, Watford Way NW4 4TY

FREE Workshop for members and residents with disabilities and their family/carers

Do you or someone you care for have concerns about safety in the community?
Have you encountered crime against a disabled person or vulnerable adult?
Attend our easy-read workshop to learn about hate crime and why reporting it matters. Find out what local support is available in Barnet.

Tuesday 17th October

SEN Independent Travel Training and Hate Crime Awareness Training

Edgware Bus Station 10.15am and 12.15pm

Station Road, Edgware HA8 7BG

Join Barnet's Metropolitan Police Safer Transport Team, TfL and the Barnet Road Safety Team on-board a red bus. Work towards travelling independently and learn about safety and reporting hate crime against disabled people and vulnerable adults.

Wednesday 18th October

Hate Crime Awareness Information Fair

Barnet Council, Colindale 1pm-2pm

Do you work with or support adults-at-risk including clients with a learning disability, mental health conditions or autistic adults?

Join us for an information session on how staff can engage with residents who may be targets of hate crime and how we can support reporting of hate crime.

Speakers: Local Councillors, Community Safety Team, Barnet Mencap and Metropolitan Police.
